La Takemusu Aikido Association Italy© è un'associazione culturale senza scopo di lucro fondata nel 1985 con il nome di Iwama Takemusu Aiki Italy (divenendo Iwama Ryu Italy successivamente e, infine, Takemusu Aikido Association Italy). Presidente e Direttore Tecnico, fin dalla nascita dell'associazione, è Paolo Corallini Shihan, 7° dan Iwama Ryu, 7° dan Aikikai.

La T.A.A.I. è la prima associazione nazionale al mondo ad essere stata desiderata da Morihiro Saito Shihan per la divulgazione dell'Aikido di Iwama, e fin dalla sua nascita ha mantenuto la natura di un ristretto circolo di cinture nere dove studiare la pedagogia tradizionale, a contatto diretto con Morihiro Saito Shihan prima, e con i suoi allievi più vicini poi. La T.A.A.I. promuove la didattica e la crescita tecnica dei suoi iscritti organizzando attività formative in tutto il territorio nazionale e offrendo sussidi didattici agli iscritti, nel massimo rispetto della pedagogia dell'Aikido di Iwama. Tutti i membri della T.A.A.I. che ne fanno richiesta possono ottenere gradi Aikikai Tokyo.

"Takemusu Aikido Association Italy© is a non-profit organization established in 1985 under the name of Iwama Takemusu Aiki Italy (later becoming "Iwama Ryu Italy" and then "Takemusu Aikido Association Italy). Paolo Corallini Shihan, 7th dan Iwama Ryu, 7th dan Aikikai is the President and Technical Supervisor since the birth of the organization.

T.A.A.I. is the first national organization in the world to be conceived and recognized by Morihiro Saito Shihan to spread Iwama Aikido, and since its birth it maintained its character of "club of black belts" where people can learn the traditional pedagogy in close connection with Morihiro Saito Shihan and his best students. T.A.A.I. promotes teaching and technical development of its members by planning workshops and meetings, and providing technical material. All T.A.A.I. members who request are entitled to obtain ranks from Aikikai Honbu Dojo."

On May 13th 2002 our beloved Sensei, Morihiro Saito, passed away. He was a man who devotedly dedicated all his life to the Founder of Aikido, O Sensei Morihei Ueshiba, and to preserving his teachings in the most faithful and rigorous way possible. To the ones who followed him, Saito Sensei left a deep spiritual heritage made of respect, kindness, gentleness and love towards others.

Takemusu Aikido Association Italy wants to honor the 10th Anniversary of Saito Sensei's passing with a large koshukai in Italy, to take place exactly in the country where Saito Sensei first came in 1985 and where Iwama Aikido started its spread throughout Europe.

This important event will take place on May 11th-12th-13th 2012 in Giaveno (Turin), at the Palasport, and will be directed by Saito Sensei's closest deshi, who are still working hard together to preserve his beautiful pedagogy with the same harmony and friendship they experienced through this amazing Aikido master.

Paolo Corallini Shihan

Paolo N. Corallini is the President of Takemusu Aikido Association Italy (T.A.A.I.). He started Aikido in April 1969 under the guidance of Motokage Kawamukai Sensei, Hirokazu Kobayashi Sensei and André Nocquet Sensei, who appointed him, in 1981, as President and Technical Director of Unione Italiana Aikido – a division of the Union Européenne d'Aikido in Italy. He followed Nobuyoshi Tamura Sensei in France closely during this period. In 1984, wishing to meet Morihiro Saito Sensei and visit the dojo where the Founder created and defined Aikido, Corallini went to Iwama. This was his first enchanting meeting with Morihiro Saito Sensei. Immediately Paolo Corallini became aware that the training method in Iwama dojo followed the traditional methods of the Founder. Then, from that moment he decided to devotedly follow Morihiro Saito Sensei. Since that time he has been to Japan as uchi deshi (direct, live-in student) 25 times to train with his Sensei. On February 1985 Corallini invited Morihiro Saito Sensei to Italy for the first seminar. This was the first time Saito Sensei was in Central Europe. From that year, Corallini followed Morihiro Saito Sensei everywhere, and invited him to Italy for seminars each year for 17 times. In 1988 he received 5th dan Takemusu Aikido from Saito Sensei, and also the 5th Buki Waza Mokuroku (weapons rank) as well as the authorization to give Tai-Jutsu (body techniques) and Buki Waza (weapons techniques) dan ranks. He was also appointed by Saito Sensei as direct Representative in Europe. In March 1993 Saito Sensei awarded Paolo Corallini 6th dan and the Shihan title in Iwama. He subsequently received 6th dan Aikikai. Corallini Sensei directs many seminars in Italy and foreign countries such as Germany, Scotland, Switzerland, France, Portugal, Austria, England, Bulgaria, Croatia, Slovenia, Rep. of South Africa, Spain, Denmark, Sweden and Lebanon each year. Morihiro Saito Sensei gave 7th Dan Iwama Ryu to his representatives Paolo Corallini and Ulf Evenås on May 25th, 2001. In the year 2006 Paolo N. Corallini, together with Ulf Evenås founded the Takemusu Aikido Kyokai (T.A.K.). On January 9th 2011 Paolo N. Corallini Shihan receives the 7th dan Aikikai directly by Moriteru Ueshiba, Aikido Doshu.

Ulf Evenås Shihan

After beginning his martial arts training in Karate, Ulf Evenås started training Aikido in 1968 and Takemusu Aikido in 1969 under Takeji Tomita Sensei. In 1973 he went to Iwama for the first time to study under Morihiro Saito Sensei for half a year, becoming one of the first long time western Uchideshi (direct, live-in students) in Iwama. He went back for a longer period in 1977, and from 1981 until the passing of Saito Sensei in 2002, he studied under Morihiro Saito Sensei, training in Iwama and participating in his seminars every year. Evenås Sensei together with Paolo Corallini received 7th Dan Iwama Ryu and was appointed Shihan by Morihiro Saito Sensei. Ulf Evenås also has full certification (5th level) in Bukiwaza (weapons techniques) from Saito Sensei. Ulf Evenås is appointed 7th Dan and Aikikai Shihan by Aikido Doshu Moriteru Ueshiba. He travels frequently to the Aikikai Hombu (Headquarters) Dojo and Ibaraki Shibu Dojo. Evenås Sensei heads the second largest Aikido dojo in Sweden, Gothenburg Aikido Club, with more than 300 members. He frequently conducts seminars in countries such as Sweden, Denmark, Italy, Russia, Germany, Lithuania, United Kingdom, Holland, Australia, USA and Malaysia. Ulf Evenås Sensei is 7th dan Aikido Shihan and has the highest Takemusu Aikido weapons teaching certificate. On 2006 Ulf Evenås together with Paolo N. Corallini founds the Takemusu Aikido Kyokai (T.A.K.) an Aikikai affiliated organization.

William W. Witt Shihan

Bill Witt began Aikido practice on July 24th, 1967 at Hombu Dojo in Tokyo, Japan and met O-Sensei for the first time. In Japan he met and trained with Morihiro Saito Sensei. Formally he became a student of Saito Sensei in October 1969. Since August 1969 until May 1980, Bill Witt Sensei trained yearly with Morihiro Saito Sensei at Ibaraki Aiki Shuren Dojo, Iwama, Japan.

Currently he is President and Co-Founder of Takemusu Aikido Association, and Senior Instructor of Aikido Dojo of Silicon Valley, Sunnyvale, CA (U.S.A.). Bill Witt Sensei received the Shodan by Nidai Doshu at Hombu Dojo, Sept. 30th, 1969, and his other ranks were awarded by Morihiro Saito Sensei. Today he is 7th dan, Aikikai Shihan.

Mark Van Meerendonk

He started Aikido in 1976 at Budokan, Frankfurt under Volker Stanzel who is now the ambassador of the Federal Republik of Germany in Japan. Volker knew Morihiro Saito Sensei a longtime and close Deshi of O'Sensei. Saito Sensei was the only teacher, who preserved during all his lifetime the original and traditional weapons techniques (with Bokken and Jo) and body techniques as taught by O'Sensei in Iwama between 1946-1969. In 1981 Ute and Mark departed to Japan and stayed in Iwama as uchideshi for 15 months. This time influenced their life significantly. On 1983-1984 again Ute and Mark stayed and trained in Iwama, at that time being Sotodeshi (living outside the dojo, training inside the dojo). After returning back to Germany Mark and his wife Ute started to teach traditional Aikido in Frankfurt. Today they are running a small Dojo in Schwickartshausen, Germany. Saito Morihiro visited the Dojo on a yearly base since 1987 and conducted remarkable seminars. Since that Mark and Ute are conducting monthly seminar and Uchideshi or Gasshuku Trainings regularly. Saito Sensei gave Mark the 6th Dan Iwama Ryu and the 5th Dan Buki Waza Mokuroku. Mark Van Meerendonk also holds the 6th Dan Aikikai.

Ute Van Meerendonk

She started Aikido in 1977 at Budokan in Frankfurt with Volker Stanzel. In 1981 Ute and Mark departed to Japan and stayed in Iwama as uchideshi for 15 months. This time influenced their life significantly. On 1983-1984 again Ute and Mark stayed and trained in Iwama, at that time being Sotodeshi (living outside the dojo, training inside the dojo). After returning back to Germany Ute and her husband Mark started to teach traditional Aikido in Frankfurt. Today they are running a small Dojo in Schwickartshausen, Germany. Saito Morihiro visited the Dojo on a yearly base since 1987 and conducted remarkable seminars. Since then Mark and Ute are conducting monthly seminar and Uchideshi or Gasshuku Trainings regularly. Saito Sensei gave the 6th Dan Iwama Ryu and the 5th Dan Buki Waza Mokuroku. Ute Van Meerendonk also holds the 6th Dan Aikikai.

Daniel Toutain

Daniel Toutain began practising Aikido in 1968 with Masamichi Noro Sensei, and remained his student until 1978 (full-time from 1976). Between 1978 and 1982 he trained intensively under Nobuyoshi Tamura Sensei, following almost all of his weekend seminars as well as his regional teacher-seminars, It was in this Dojo that he received a visit from Tsunemori Kaminoda Sensei and Risuke Otake Sensei, as well as Donn F. Draeger, during their European tour organised by Tiki Shiwan and Daniel Lederer. Up until 1982, he successively held the positions of D.T.R (Regional Technical Delegate), at the U.N.A.

(National Union of Aikido), and then R.T.N. (National Technical Supervisor) at the F.F.L.A.B. (French Free Federation of Aikido and Budo). He continued to study with Tamura Sensei until 1987, albeit episodically. In April 1993, Daniel Toutain became a student of Morihiro Saito Sensei, 9th Dan Aikikai. To study under Master Saito was a long-awaited dream for Daniel Toutain. From his first contact with this historic master, he was captivated by Master Saito's mastery and knowledge, and equally touched by the great humanity of this teacher. He became deeply attached to him and was profoundly marked when Master Saito passed away in May 2002. Saito Sensei conferred on him the grade of 6th Dan in March 2002. In addition, Saito Sensei awarded Daniel Toutain the grade of 5th Dan in Aiki Ken and Aiki Jo, which is the highest Iwama grade for Aikido weapons.
